Taxes, Tax Advantages & Tax-Free Transfers

Tax Deferral	Federal income taxes are deferred until the year interest is withdrawn. <sup>4</sup> There is no tax deferral if the owner is a corporation. If the owner is a trust or other entity, please consult a tax advisor regarding the tax-deferred status. The return of principal may also be taxable on tax-qualified annuities, such as traditional IRAs.
Tax-Advantaged Income	Once the contract is annuitized, part of each annuity income payment is considered a tax-free return of principal (except tax-qualified annuities, such as traditional IRAs, where the principal may also be taxable).
Pre-59½ Withdrawals	Withdrawals of interest prior to age 59½ may be subject to a 10% federal income tax penalty. The penalty may be waived for death, total disability (as defined by the IRS), or if the payment is made as part of a series of substantially equal payments for the life expectancy of the owner (except tax-qualified annuities where the entire amount withdrawn may be subject to a 10% federal income tax penalty).
Tax-Free Exchange	May be used for exchanges from a life insurance or endowment contract or another annuity. A 90-day rate lock applies. To maintain non-taxable status, the owner and annuitant must remain the same, and the owner cannot take receipt of the funds.
Tax-Qualified Plans	May be an initial tax-qualified contribution, or a transfer or direct rollover of funds for IRAs, SEPs, Keoghs or 401(k)s.  <sup>4</sup> Unless your annuity is a Roth IRA, for federal income tax purposes, withdrawals are treated as earnings first, subject to ordinary income tax, and as a return of principal after earnings are exhausted.

Extended Care	After the second contract year, early withdrawal charges will be waived if the owner is confined to a qualifying institution or extended care facility for 90 consecutive days or longer.
Terminal Illness	Early withdrawal charges will be waived upon the diagnosis of a terminal illness that will result in the death of a contract owner within one year. Written documentation from a qualified physician is required.

Written certification by a licensed healthcare practitioner is required.

First SunAmerica Life Insurance Company is a leading provider of tax-deferred annuities through financial institutions. We offer innovative products and valued services to help Americans achieve their financial goals.

Our products can help you live retirement on your terms.

Tax-qualified contracts such as IRAs, 401(k)s, etc., are tax deferred regardless of whether or not they are funded with an annuity. If you are considering funding a tax-qualified retirement plan with an annuity, you should know that an annuity does not provide any additional tax-deferred treatment of earnings beyond the treatment by the tax-qualified retirement plan itself. However, annuities do provide other features and benefits such as income options.

Neither First SunAmerica Life Insurance Company nor its agents or representatives are authorized to give legal, tax or accounting advice. The information contained in this brochure summarizes the provisions of the annuity and our understanding of the current tax laws as they relate to this deferred annuity. Please refer to the policy for the actual governing contractual provisions. Please consult your attorney, accountant or tax advisor. This material is not intended to be used, nor can it be used by any taxpayer, for the purpose of avoiding U.S. federal, state and local tax penalties.
